

Shuler and Joseph Doron
The Doron Brothers Electrical Co.

Early wireless radio history in Hamilton, Ohio

-April 30, 2008-

PHOTOGRAPHS SECTION 2 of 2

- THE LATER YEARS 1920-1930 AND STATION WRK -

The Doron Bros. Electrical Company's first radio manufacturing shop (white building) on North B St. at Wayne St. in the former Blum & Co. Furniture Factory (204 N B St.) before they moved further north on B Street into another building during 1918 and then moved again further north to the 325-329 North B Street building (see page 4)

Doron Bros. Electric Company c1920 "Type R.D.2-A" 3-tube battery radio

DORON BROS. RADIO STATION "WRK" IN 1922

Interior of the equipment building on the Doron property at 329 North C Street
-1922 Science and Invention magazine article photograph-

(The building was also used for the Doron's special amateur land station 8ZU)

Building built by the Dorons on North B Street for manufacturing radios
(later became the Champion Paper Company activities building)
(picture circa 1943)

A WRK radio class
(school unknown, date unknown)

Tom C. Smith, announcer and control room engineer for Shuler Doron's and John Slade's station "WRK" circa 1927

Interior of the station building possibly at the 3 Railroad Street location

Rev. J.P. Gallaher, Pastor of the WRK Radio Church broadcasting services remotely 1927

Butler County School Superintendent Joseph W. Fichter
conducting classes through WRK to rural districts 1927

WRK remote broadcast from Hamilton Ford Airport
prior to arrival of trans-Atlantic pilot Clarence E. Chamberlin

Tom Smith, John Slade, a pilot in Chamberlin party, Joseph Savage (committee chairman) 1928

WRK remote broadcast from Hamilton Ford Airport
John Slade interviewing Clarence E. Chamberlin, the first pilot to fly from the Atlantic coast to Germany with a passenger 1928